

State Vs. Sajid @ Baniya
e-FIR No.000248/20
U/s 379/411/34 IPC
PS Kirti Nagar

13.08.2020

Present: Ld. APP for State.
None for accused/applicant.

Vide order dt. 09.08.2020 passed by the Court of Dr. Jagminder Singh, Ld. CMM (West)/ Delhi while working as Duty MM for West District, Delhi, accused Sajid @ Baniya was granted bail on furnishing of personal bonds in the sum of Rs. 10,000/- with one surety in the like amount.

On 10.08.2020 a stamped copy of said bail order was sent back by Dy. Supdt. Central Jail No.1, Tihar, New Delhi with an endorsement that the order does not mentions the father's name and address of the accused and therefore, the same be mentioned to avoid any wrong release.

Perusal of the order dt. 09.08.2020 shows that the same is only a bail order and it nowhere mentions that same be treated as release warrants or that the bail bonds/surety bonds have been filed and accepted.

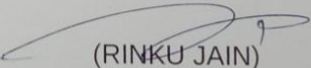

It appears that the dasti copy of the order has been treated as release warrants by the Dy. Supdt.

Concerned Dy. Supdt. shall file a reply within three days explaining how the order dt. 09.08.2020 mandated him to release the accused from custody or how the same was treated as release warrants.

It is clarified that order dt. 09.08.2020 is not to be treated as release warrants in the absence of specific release warrants in view of the aforementioned.

A copy of this order be sent to Jail Supdt. Tihar Jail, Delhi for compliance.

Put up for further orders before Ld. CMM (West)/Delhi on 17.08.2020.

Vehicle No. DL 1SX 8958

13.08.2020

This is an application for releasing vehicle bearing no. DL 1SX 8958 on Superdari.

Present:- Ld. APP for the State.
None for applicant.

Instead of releasing the vehicle on superdari, I am of the considered view that the vehicle has to be released as per directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case titled as Sunder Bhai Ambalal Desai Vs. State of Gujrat, AIR 2003 SC 638 wherein it has been held that

Vehicles involved in an offence may be released to the rightful owner after preparing detailed panchnama; taking photographs of the vehicle, valuation report, and a security bond.

69. The photographs of the vehicle should be attested countersigned by the complainant, accused as well as by the person to whom the custody is handed over.

70. The production of the vehicle should not be insisted upon during the trial. The panchnama and photographs along with the valuation report should suffice for the purposes of evidence.

71. Return of vehicles and permission for sale thereof should be the general norm rather than the exception.

72. If the vehicle is insured, the court shall issue notice to the owner and the insurance company for disposal of the vehicle. If there is no response or the owner declines to take the vehicle or informs that it has claimed insurance/released its right in the vehicle to the insurance company and the insurance company fails to take possession of the vehicle, the vehicle may be ordered to be sold in auction.

73. If a vehicle is reply not claimed by the accused, owner, or the insurance company or by a third person, it may be ordered to be sold by auction."

The view of the Hon'ble Supreme Court has been reiterated by Hon'ble Delhi High Court in case titled as Manjit Singh Vs. State in Crl. M.C. No. 4485/2013 dated 10.09.2014.

Considering the facts and circumstances and law laid down by higher courts, vehicle in question bearing registration no. DL 1SX 8958 be released to the registered owner after due identity verification and if the IO/SHO has no objection in release of the abovesaid vehicle and the same is not required any further for investigation of the present case on furnishing security bond as per valuation report of the vehicle. IO shall check / verify the valid insurance certificate before releasing the same. After preparation of panchnama of the vehicle and furnishing of security bond as per directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court, the vehicle shall be released by the IO.

Copy of this order be given dasti to applicant.

Present:- Ld. APP for the State.
None for applicant.

Instead of releasing the vehicle on superdari, I am of the considered view that the vehicle has to be released as per directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case titled as Sunder Bhai Ambalal Desai Vs. State of Gujrat, AIR 2003 SC 638 wherein it has been held that

Vehicles involved in an offence may be released to the rightful owner after preparing detailed panchnama, taking photographs of the vehicle, valuation report, and a security bond.

69. The photographs of the vehicle should be attested countersigned by the complainant, accused as well as by the person to whom the custody is handed over.

70. The production of the vehicle should not be insisted upon during the trial. The panchnama and photographs along with the valuation report should suffice for the purposes of evidence.

71. Return of vehicles and permission for sale thereof should be the general norm rather than the exception.

72. If the vehicle is insured, the court shall issue notice to the owner and the insurance company for disposal of the vehicle. If there is no response or the owner declines to take the vehicle or informs that it has claimed insurance/released its right in the vehicle to the insurance company and the insurance company fails to take possession of the vehicle, the vehicle may be ordered to be sold in auction.

73. If a vehicle is reply not claimed by the accused, owner, or the insurance company or by a third person, it may be ordered to be sold by auction."

The view of the Hon'ble Supreme Court has been reiterated by Hon'ble Delhi High Court in case titled as Manjit Singh Vs. State in Crl. M.C. No. 4485/2013 dated 10.09.2014.

Considering the facts and circumstances and law laid down by higher courts, vehicle in question bearing registration no. DL 11 SR 6852 be released to the registered owner after due identity verification and if the IO/SHO has no objection in release of the abovesaid vehicle and the same is not required any further for investigation of the present case on furnishing security bond as per valuation report of the vehicle. IO/SHO shall release the vehicle only after verification of valid insurance certificate of the vehicle. After preparation of panchnama of the vehicle and furnishing of security bond as per directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court, the vehicle shall be released by the IO.

Copy of this order be given dasti to applicant.

Panchnama and valuation report shall be filed in the court along with charge sheet.
