This is an application for extension of interim bail moved on behalf of accused Kamal Kishore in case FIR No.32/201.

Ld. counsel for the accused-applicant contended that accused-applicant was granted interim bail of 15 days vide order dated 24.06.2020 on the ground of illness of his sister. That interim bail of the accused-applicant was extended vide order dated 31.07.2020. Thereafter applicant moved interim bail application on behalf of illness of his mother which was allowed vide order dated 26.08.2020 and 45 days of interim bail was granted to the accused-applicant and further same was extended from time to time till 31.10.2020.

Heard.

Interim Bail in the first instance was granted to the accused applicant to enable him to arrange for the treatment of his sister and thereafter on the ground of illness of his mother and was extended as per the directions passed by the Full Bench of H'ble the High Court of Delhi in

Neelgurus

W. P. (C) N.3027/2020 titled as Court on Its Own Motion v. Govt of NCT of Delhi & Ors. It emerges that the blanket extensions awarded to the UTP's under the previous orders by the H'ble Full Bench passed in the above said writ petition from time to time were revoked and the interim bails and orders were not granted further extensions vide order dated 20.10.2020 and it came to be observed and directed as under on the aspect of further extension of interim bails and orders:

"This Court vide order dated 25th March, 2020 took suo moto notice of outbreak of Covid-19 and the restricted functioning of this Courts vide notification number No.51/RG/DHC/dated 13.03.2020 as well as Government notification dated 24 March, 2020 declaring nationwide lockdown for a period of 21 days wef. 25 March, 2020 and passed a detailed order of which operative portion is as under:

"Taking suo moto cognizance of the aforesaid extraordinary circumstances, under Article 226 & 227 of the Constitution of India, it is hereby ordered that in all matters pending before this court and courts subordinate to this court, where in such interim orders issued were subsisting as on 16.03.2020 and expired or will expire thereafter, the same shall stand automatically extended till 15.05.2020 or until further orders, except where any orders to the contrary have been passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in any particular matter, during the intervening period.

Need less to clarify that in case, the aforesaid extension of interim order causes any hardship of an extreme nature to a party to such proceeding, they would be at liberty to seek appropriate relief, as may be advised".

7. After considering all aspects and in view of the fact that the interim bail and interim stay extension order was necessitated because functioning of the Courts was curtailed due to complete lockdown declared on 25.03.2020 but now the situation has changed and Courts at High Court and District Court level are functioning through physical mode/VC mode and since there is no spread of Covid-19 in the jails and out of about 16,000 prisoners only 3 are infected and they have been segregated and are admitted in hospital, we deem it proper to modify our order dated 25 March, 2020 which was lastly extended on 24th August, 2020 as under:

(i) As far as the first category of 2318 undertrials involved in heinous crimes, who were granted interim bail by the District Courts, there shall be no further extension of interim bails under the orders of this Court. However, to facilitate their surrender before jail authorities and to avoid any inconvenience being caused to the jail authorities during surrender of a large number of under trials, it is ordered that the surrender shall take place in the following phased manner:

(a) The prisoners of Central District, Tis Hazari Courts, shall surrender on 2nd November, 2020.

(b) The prisoners of West District, Tis Hazari Courts, shall surrender on 3rd November, 2020.

(c) The prisoners of Patiala House Courts, New Delhi District shall surrender on 4 November, 2020.

(d) The prisoners of East District, Karkardooma Courts shall surrender on 5th November, 2020,

(e) The prisoners of North East District, Karkardooma Courts shall surrender on 6 November, 2020,

(f) The prisoners of Shahdara District, Karkardooma Courts shall surrender on 7th November, 2020.

(g) The prisoners of North District, Rohini Court shall surrender on 8th November, 2020,

(h) The prisoners of North West District, Rohini Courts shall surrender on 9th November, 2020.

(i) The prisoners of South West District, Dwarka

Neelguru

Courts shall surrender on 10 November, 2020.

(j) The prisoners of South District, Saket Courts, shall surrender on 11 November, 2020.

(k) The prisoners of South East District, Saket Courts shall surrender on 12 November, 2020.

(j) The prisoners of Rouse Avenue Courts Complex, New Delhi shall surrender on 13th November, 2020.

(ii) The above 2,318 prisoners are at liberty to move the respective courts for extension of their interim bails and the concerned courts shall consider the said applications for extension of interim bails on its own merits and take a decision accordingly without being influenced by any order passed by this Court in the past.

(iii) As far as 2,907 prisoners, who have been granted bail on the recommendation of High Power Committee are concerned, a request is made to the High Power Committee to take a decision in respect of the said prisoners within ten days from today.

The above directions particularly pertaining to the schedule of surrender of the UTP's, as contained under the said order of H'ble the Full Bench of H'ble the High Court of Delhi however came to be stayed by H'ble the Supreme Court of India in SLP (CIVIL) No.23367/2020 titled as National Forum of Prison Reforms vs. Government of NCT of Delhi & others on 29.10.2020 till the next date of hearing ie 26.11.2020. Moreover, the directions granting leave to the UTP's to seek extension on the merits of their respective grounds has also been stayed. In the wake of the order dated 29.10.2020 of the H'ble Apex Court therefore there are no directions for extension or otherwise required to be passed by this Court in respect of the UTP's who are on interim bail as extended by virtue of the orders passed by the Full Bench of the High Court of Delhi in W. P. (C) N.3027/2020 titled as Court on Its Own Motion v. Govt of NCT of Delhi & Ors and who all were required to have surrendered in terms of order dated 20.10.2020 passed in the said writ petition as reproduced supra as per the schedule, as the said directions stand stayed till 26.11.2020. Application is disposed of accordingly.

N. S. Jaiswal
